To the Hon. Justices of the District Court, for the Eastern District, October Term, A. D. 1843.

holders at Bangor, in and for the County of Penobscot.

DEODAT BRASTOW of Brewer, in said county, respectfully represents that he is seized

in simple and as tenant in common of and in one undivided half of certain real estate situate in

Brewer, and being lots numbered sixty-four and twenty feet of lot numbered sixty-three adjoining said lot No 63—it being the northeasterly

part of said lot No 63—agreeably to plan of said

lots made by Joseph Treat, Esquire, July 1, 1833,

and recorded in Penobscot Records, Plan Book No

one, Page 42, together with the northeasterly half of the dwelling house situated on said lot No 63—

with certain persons unknown to your petitioner,

that he cannot possess, occupy and improve his

said part to any advantage while the same lies in common and undivided as aforesaid, but wholly looses the profits thereof. Wherefore, he prays that notice may issue in due form of law, and that his

said part may be set off and assigned to him in severality, and your petitioner will ever pray.

Dated at Brewer, this fourteenth day of October

$25 REWARD.

FOUND in the streets of the city of Bangor on or about the 20th March a man who appears to be thoroughly respecting his name, connections, or residence, sometimes calling himself "Charles Hunt,"

or "Arthur Jones." "Charles Hunt" and says he "lived in the plain with dozen Morrell in Norwich." He is about five feet eight inches high, has light brown eyes

brown hair, and light complexion. His age appears to be about 23 years. The chest is somewhat depressed and his skin is upon his hands as for health

used a knife, and his hands have the appearance of his having been accustomed to some labor. He had on when found a strong iron cap without visor and a black stock coat, much worn, or home made cloth, and dark pantaloons.

It is believed that some person must have brought this man into the city, and left him to perish or be pertived for the city. Information is now sought as to where the man or his or his living, and a hand

and a hand offered for such information as will lead to the discovery of the person who abandoned this man, with the intent of the year to the period of exposure to the city. He is now lodger in the Adams

House.

Any person who can give information to the Overseers of the Poor of Bangor, regarding this man or the name or his residence, will confer a reward, and if the information thus given shall lead to the conviction of a person for the crime against law and humanity, a reward of twenty-five dollars should be paid

Weekly Courier.

The Bangor Courier is published this morning. It contains THREE ATTRACTIVE STORIES—together with Poetry, Serious Reading, Able Articles on the Tariff and Texas, a large variety of News Editorials, Miscellanies, &c. For sale at four cents a copy.

The present condition of Kenduskeag Bridge renders it highly probable that it will be necessary to rebuild the same the present season. There seems to be a general decay of the timbers composing its exterior walls and some of the weakest places will immediately be supported by temporary repairs. It is stated that it is a favorable time for building this bridge of stone, so far at least, as the expense is concerned, as an abundant supply of rough stone is already prepared at the quarries on our river. This will be an item of expense not heretofore supposed necessary to incur the present season, but which now appears somewhat imperative. In order to accommodate the public travel during the rebuilding or extensive repairs, it will probably be necessary for the city to accept the Franklin Bridge, which has been offered the city and to put the same in sale condition for the use of the public.

A Famous Ox.

A famous Ox, celebrated for beauty of proportion and abundance of fat, raised by Seth Parlin, Esq., of Norridgewock, has been purchased by Mr. Ames of New Sharon, one of the firm of Shaw, Goodwin & Co. at Stall No. 3 in Kenduskeag Market, brought to this city, slaughtered and is now exhibited in the Market. Its huge rolls of golden fat make a great display, and will in a few days get well ripened for titivating the palate and exciting the glands of those who love good eating and can afford a choice cut. Those who doubt the ability of down east to make the best beef in the world should call at the Market House, and have their doubts removed by an examination of the Parlin Ox.

Great preparations are being made by the young folks of our city for pleasant rambles, at an early hour to-morrow morning, it being May day. Mount Hope is to be visited by a brilliant little party, who also intend making a water excursion on their return. Lover's Leap will, as usual, have its crowd of admirers. One or two parties intend taking a tilt upon the Rail Road as far as the Steam Mills, where flowers are exceedingly abundant. This is all right. The fresh free air of early dawn, the joyous laugh of glad hearts, the companionship of youthful friends, the gleeful gathering of flowers, on a bright May morning, are worth a world of medicine for the body, and at the same time improve the affections, enlarge the mind and inspire the soul. Up, then, young men and maidens, and go forth into the woods to-morrow.

Moose Head Lake.

We have been politely shown a letter received in this city yesterday stating that Moosehead Lake is about clear of ice. This makes it pretty certain that all the Lakes connected with the Penobscot and Kennebec Rivers are or will soon be open. This will be good news to our lumbermen.

City Affairs.

In COMMON COUNCIL, April 29.

Papers from the Board of Aldermen, reported in our paper on Saturday, disposed of in concurrence, with the exception of an addition of five hundred dollars to the appropriation for highways.

Petitions presented and referred—Of Elisha Mayo et al. to have Charles and Thomas streets accepted—of Henry E. Prentiss et al. for side walk on Harlow street—of Saml. C. Hemenway et al. to have continuation of Third street accepted—of Elijah Low et al. to have French street made—of Aaron Young et al. to have Front street repaired—of Elbridge Harris et al. for side walk on Cumberland.

Orders passed in concurrence. That an abatement of six per cent be made on all taxes committed to the Treasurer and Collector during present municipal year, which be voluntarily paid to said Treasurer and Collector within one month after commitment. That an abatement of four per cent be made on all taxes so paid within three months after such commitment; and that the Treasurer and Collector be directed to make the abatements aforesaid on all taxes paid within the periods named.

That the Mayor employ some suitable person to repair the fences around the public burial ground at Mount Hope, providing the expense of the same shall not exceed fifty dollars.

That a special committee, consisting of the Mayor, Aldermen Deane, Messrs. George Sayward and J. W. Boynton, examine the Kenduskeag Bridge and report whether it will be expedient to build or repair the same, and the probable cost, and report at the next meeting.

That the city Treasurer be directed to purchase a lot of land at Hatch's Mills for $25 for the purpose of placing a school house upon the same. And that the Street Commissioner move upon the lot to be purchased, the School House now upon the land of Mr. Strickland.

That the Committee on Public Schools be instructed to ascertain where and at what price a suitable lot for a School House on or near York Street, can be obtained; and also a suitable lot for a School House near the junction of Cedar and Second Streets, and report at the next City Council.

That the Mayor draw his order in favor of Engine Company No. 5 for one hundred and fourteen dollars.

Reports accepted in concurrence—of Committee on Streets on petition of S. F. Fuller for new road, that the same be granted—of Street Engineers on boundaries of Ohio Street:

Resolve authorizing a temporary loan—finally passed.

Adj. to meet on Monday two weeks at 2 o'clock P. M.

We have received a long communication with the signature of "Anti-Texas," gravely arguing, in the space of more than half a column of type, that the public call for a meeting on the subject of the Annexation of Texas was not for the purpose of remonstrating. The only answer to this, is, that the call distinctly states the object to be a "united remonstrance." To attempt arguing this fixed fact out of existence, is fully.

Another position is that it is highly presumtuous to call a meeting of all the citizens to act on a specific conclusion. Perhaps so; but the thing is often done nor is there in fact any impropriety in the matter. All the citizens of Bangor in favor of any definite and specific action may be called at any time and when called, only those in favor of such action have a right to take part in the business of the meeting, unless specially admitted.

That portion of the article relating to the proceedings of Wednesday evening has been anticipated by another correspondent and there is no need of repeating the matter. We have the best reason for stating that the proceedings of that meeting are altogether differently understood by different persons and the whole merits of the matter rest entirely upon the point, whether those in favor of Annexation had a right to act and vote in a meeting called for the purpose of remonstrating against such annexation. If it can be proved they had such right it must be done with other arguments than those brought forward for the purpose.

We had no connection with the public meeting. We thought it unnecessary. A good remonstrance had been previously prepared. We hope therefore that the result of the meeting does not mind respecting public opinion. This we should like as we are strongly opposed to the Annexation of Texas to our beloved Union.

The Military Law of 1844.

To the Editor of the Whig and Courier:

One of the most singular provisions of this most singular law, is to be found in the first section, and must be regarded by the Light Corps of the State, as peculiarly flattering to them. Its first object seems to be to provide for exemptions, and reads as follows—"Persons enlisting into volunteer companies, idiots, lunatics, common drunkards, vagabonds paupers, and persons convicted of any infamous crime." Now whether the Light Corps, with their honorable associates, are, by this law, exempted from doing duty, or from the action of the law; no one knows.

I have not yet found a single member of that honorable and intelligent legislature capable of giving any light upon the question. Of one thing I feel sure however; it is, that these companies must feel exceedingly flattered by it.

I suppose there are some one hundred Light Corps in the State, consisting of cavalry, artillery, light infantry and riflemen—a majority of which cannot be surpassed in a military point of view, by those of any other state in the Union, and have expended thousands of dollars for arms uniforms and equipments, saying nothing of time, trouble and cost of a military education.

These companies have, and should be regarded, as an honor to the cities and towns in which they are located, and to the State at large. Sure I am, that, the 17th of June, A. D. 1843, was a proud day for Maine. As a compensation for all their sacrifices for the public good and honor, as a reward of merit I doubt not this honorable provision is made for them in the first words of the first section of the law.

What an honorable position! It seems to me there must exist among them a spontaneous feeling of gratitude, of thankfulness, of hearts overflowing with love and profound respect for the members of the last legislature for the prompt and unsolicited interference in their behalf, and especially for the honorable company, their associates, with whom they are placed.

How thoughtful it was—and how magnanimous, to rescue the members of these companies from the degraded station of the citizen soldier, and place them in the high and honorable company of horse thieves, drunkards, lunatics and non-composes. I have just read this wonderful law for the first time, and I am impressed with the belief that the legislature made an unprincipled blunder in not providing, in an extra section, for their own exemption, under the head of non-commissioned. This would have made the law perfect.

The second section of the law provides that no active duty whatever, shall be required of the militia.

The law of the United States requires the several States, composing the Union, to keep their militia organized, and make annual returns to the War office at Washington. Notwithstanding this law, and the oath of every member to support it, and the Constitution, the Legislature of Maine passed a law that her militia shall do no duty whatever, and no enrolments or returns can be made. Whether the legislature, in their profound wisdom, supposed they could destroy the militia system, and that then the requirements of the United States' law could be furnished from its dead carcass I know not—but sure I am, that such an anomaly is as paradoxical as it would be to attempt to gain the summit of Mount Washington in a pleasure carriage.

An inactive militia—a militia without discipline, is dead—absolutely dead; and the attempt to get wind from a dead object, one would suppose, was the appropriate sphere of the last legislature.

I am here led to ask, what strange influence operated on the Legislature to produce this disgraceful result, when there was not one single petition before them praying for it? The members with whom I have conversed agree in giving as a reason, that the Military Committee did not report until the Legislature was about to adjourn, and then, on its heel, they got into a quarrel, and all went by the board. But two journals have come out and claimed the honor of its passage on the score of retrenchment. For the honor of the State, these two honorable papers stand alone in their unenviable position.

Retrenchment, forsooth!—annihilate the militia system, and save twenty thousand dollars, (which sum was paid in sums of fifty cents per man, on the day of the annual review in lieu of rations, thereby dividing it per capita throughout the State) and spend thirty thousand dollars demagoguing on useless and uncalled for State valuation; and thirty thousand more, annually, demagoguing on the land distribution money, and persisting in a refusal to receive seventeen thousand dollars, which will be sacrificed to the State. Oh, consistency, truly thou art a jewel. Within my recollection it was considered an honor to be a representative of the people in a legislative assembly. Then, gentlemen were selected by the good citizens to serve them, and these selections were made wholly on account of the virtue, patriotism, honor and superior intelligence of the individual, and their public servants served their country, regardless of self, and self-aggrandizement. Now in shame I say it, nine times in ten, the offices are filled by individuals who select themselves,—hence we find that legislation has degenerated, until now, it is absolutely disreputable to be a member of either branch of our legislatures. While there are a few, in both houses, who are men of talent, honest and honorable, having the public good at heart, the great mass are ignorant, illiterate, low, vulgar demagogues of the meanest rank, ever ready to "log roll" and sacrifice every public interest for selfish or party ends.

Analyze either of our legislatures for the last twelve years, and you will find a great majority of each composed of this species of demagogues who, on one hobby or another, contrive to get themselves elected for the sake of lounging away the winter at Augusta at the public expense. Thus it is, that legislation has become so cheap, and every thing appertaining to it, is now in such a state of chaos. In lieu of the public business engrossing their attention and then adjourning, and "letting well enough alone," they must demagogue the whole winter on Mexico, Texas, California, Cape Horn and Gov. Dorr. The remedy I propose is, not to organize a fourth party as a renovator, there is already one more than there should be; but it is, that good men unite, and elect to the next legislature, good, honest and honorable men—men who will only legislate for the public good and honor.
